PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Ahmed bin Mohammed Al Jarwan, President of the Global Council for Tolerance and Peace, pays a courtesy visit to Speaker of the House of Representatives Anġlu Farrugia

President of the Global Council for Tolerance and Peace Ahmed bin Mohammed Al Jarwan paid a courtesy visit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives Anġlu Farrugia.

During the visit, President Al Jarwan and the Speaker discussed various initiatives and collaborative efforts aimed at promoting global tolerance, peace, and mutual understanding. The meeting underscored the critical importance of fostering dialogue and cooperation among nations to address contemporary challenges related to intolerance, conflict, and social injustice.

Speaker Anġlu Farrugia expressed his appreciation for the efforts of the Global Council for Tolerance and Peace in advancing these noble objectives. He also highlighted the significance of such international partnerships in contributing to a more peaceful and harmonious world.

President Al Jarwan thanked Speaker Anġlu Farrugia for his warm welcome and reiterated the Council's commitment to working closely with legislative bodies worldwide to enact policies and initiatives that support tolerance and peace. He also emphasised the Council's role in promoting education and awareness as key tools in the fight against intolerance and discrimination.

The meeting concluded with both leaders expressing their shared vision for a future where tolerance and peace are upheld as universal values. They agreed to explore further avenues for collaboration and to support each other's efforts in this vital cause.

The Global Council for Tolerance and Peace continues to be a leading advocate for peace and tolerance through various programs and partnerships, striving to create a global culture of understanding and respect.
