PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Farewell call by the Ambassador of Kosovo to the Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Anglu Farrugia, received a farewell call from the Ambassador of the Republic of Kosovo, Lendita Haxhitasim, marking the end of her diplomatic tenure as Kosovo's Ambassador to Malta.

During their meeting, Speaker Farrugia and Ambassador Haxhitasim reflected on the strong bilateral relations between Malta and Kosovo, highlighting the significant progress made in various areas of cooperation. The Speaker expressed his gratitude to Ambassador Haxhitasim for her dedicated service and contributions to fostering a deeper mutual understanding and collaboration between the two countries.

Ambassador Haxhitasim thanked Speaker Farrugia for the support extended to her during her tenure and praised the Maltese government for its commitment to enhancing bilateral ties. She also acknowledged the fruitful exchanges and cooperation in the fields of education, culture, and economic development.

Both dignitaries discussed the importance of continuing to build on the existing strong relationship and exploring new avenues for cooperation. Speaker Anglu Farrugia emphasized Malta's support for Kosovo's efforts towards European integration and expressed hope for continued progress in this regard.

Speaker Farrugia wished Ambassador Haxhitasim success in her future endeavours and expressing confidence that the friendship between Malta and Kosovo would continue to flourish.
