

PR241123

28.06.2024

3

PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Meeting between Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives David Agius and High Commissioner of The Gambia Noah Touray

Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives David Agius held a productive meeting today with High Commissioner of The Gambia Noah Touray. The meeting, which took place at the Parliament House, underscored the longstanding bilateral relations between Malta and The Gambia and highlighted key areas of mutual interest and cooperation.

During the discussions, Deputy Speaker David Agius and High Commissioner Noah Touray reviewed the strong and friendly ties between Malta and The Gambia, emphasizing the importance of further enhancing these relations. They explored opportunities for increased collaboration in various sectors, including trade, education, and tourism, which could benefit both nations.

A significant portion of the meeting was dedicated to discussing issues pertaining to the Commonwealth. Both parties reaffirmed their commitment to the values and principles of the Commonwealth and expressed their eagerness to work together to address common challenges. They underscored the importance of unity and cooperation among Commonwealth member states to promote peace, prosperity, and sustainable development. Regional issues also featured prominently in the discussions. The Deputy Speaker and the High Commissioner exchanged views on the latest developments in their respective regions, with a focus on fostering stability and economic growth. They acknowledged the need for continued dialogue and collaboration to address regional challenges, including security concerns and economic disparities. Furthermore, the meeting provided an opportunity to discuss various candidatures within international organisations.

The meeting concluded on a positive note, with both Deputy Speaker Agius and High Commissioner Touray reiterating their commitment to strengthening the bilateral relations between Malta and The Gambia. They expressed confidence that the ongoing cooperation between their two countries will continue to yield positive results and contribute to the well-being and prosperity of their peoples.