PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Ambassador of Uruguay Ricardo Javier Varela Fernandez pays courtesy visit to Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives David Agius

Ambassador of Uruguay Ricardo Javier Varela Fernandez paid a courtesy visit to Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives David Agius. The meeting, held at the Parliament House, was marked by discussions on a range of topics concerning the bilateral relationship between Malta and Uruguay.

During their cordial conversation, both dignitaries emphasised the importance of strengthening bilateral ties and explored opportunities for enhancing cooperation between the two nations.

The Deputy Speaker and the Ambassador reviewed the current state of relations between Malta and Uruguay, reaffirming their commitment to maintaining and expanding friendly relations. The discussion extended to regional matters, with both parties sharing insights and perspectives on developments affecting their respective regions. They expressed mutual interest in collaborating on regional stability and security.

A significant portion of the dialogue focused on the promotion of trade and economic collaboration. Both Malta and Uruguay recognize the potential for increased trade relations and discussed strategies to facilitate business exchanges and investments between the two countries.

The meeting concluded with a mutual agreement to continue fostering close relations and exploring avenues for cooperation in various fields. Both Deputy Speaker David Agius and Ambassador Javier Varela Fernandez expressed their optimism for the future of Malta-Uruguay relations and their shared vision for a prosperous partnership.
