

PR241273

30.07.2024

1

PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Farewell call by the French Ambassador to Malta on the Speaker of the House of Representatives

Speaker Anġlu Farrugia received a farewell call from the French Ambassador to Malta Agnes von der Muhll. This occasion marked the end of Mrs. von der Muhll's distinguished tenure in Malta.

During the meeting, Speaker Farrugia and Mrs. von der Muhll reflected on the robust and cordial bilateral relations that have been nurtured between Malta and France over the years. The Speaker expressed his deep appreciation for the Ambassador's dedicated efforts in enhancing the collaboration and friendship between the two nations.

Speaker Farrugia acknowledged the significant contributions of Mrs. von der Muhll in various areas, including cultural exchanges, economic partnerships, and political dialogue. He emphasized the importance of continuing to build on these strong foundations to further mutual interests and shared values.

Mrs. von der Muhll, in her remarks, conveyed her gratitude for the warm hospitality and cooperation she received from the Maltese government and people during her tenure. She highlighted several successful joint initiatives and expressed her confidence in the ongoing collaboration between Malta and France.

Both parties discussed future prospects for Malta-France relations, with a focus on enhancing cooperation in various fields such as education, and tourism. Speaker Farrugia and Mrs. von der Muhll also reiterated their commitment to working together within the European Union framework to address common challenges and seize new opportunities.

The farewell meeting concluded with an exchange of tokens of appreciation, symbolizing the enduring friendship between Malta and France. The Speaker of the House of Representatives wished Mrs. von der Muhll success in her future endeavours and assured her that Malta remains a steadfast partner and friend to France.