PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

High Commissioner of Pakistan to Malta, pays a courtesy visit to the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives

Following the presentation of his credentials to the President of the Republic of Malta, the new High Commissioner of Pakistan to Malta, Javed Ahmed Umrani, met with the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives David Agius, in a significant diplomatic engagement.

The meeting took place at the House of Representatives in Valletta, where High Commissioner Umrani and the Deputy Speaker discussed the strengthening of bilateral relations between Pakistan and Malta. Both officials expressed their commitment to enhancing cooperation in various sectors including trade, education, and cultural exchange.

Umrani highlighted Pakistan's interest in deepening its partnership with Malta, emphasizing the potential for collaborative projects and mutual benefits that could arise from a stronger relationship between the two countries. He also outlined his vision for furthering diplomatic and economic ties during his tenure.

The Deputy Speaker welcomed High Commissioner Umrani to Malta and acknowledged the long-standing friendly relations between the two nations. He expressed optimism about the future of the bilateral relationship and assured the Ambassador of Malta's readiness to work together in addressing shared goals and opportunities. The meeting underscored the mutual desire of both Pakistan and Malta to advance their diplomatic and economic interests and to foster a closer connection between their peoples.
