PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Courtesy call by the French Ambassador to Malta upon the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives

The new French Ambassador to Malta, Sandrine Beatrice Michelle Lelong-Motta, met with the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives of Malta, David Agius, following the presentation of her letters of credence.

The meeting, held at the Maltese Parliament, marks the beginning of Lelong-Motta's official duties in Malta and underscores the continued strong relationship between France and Malta. During the cordial and productive discussion, both leaders reaffirmed their commitment to strengthening bilateral relations and exploring new areas of cooperation.

The Deputy Speaker welcomed Ambassador Lelong-Motta to Malta and expressed his confidence that her tenure would further enhance the strong ties between the two nations. He emphasized Malta's readiness to continue collaborating on issues of mutual interest, including economic development, cultural exchange, and regional security.

Ambassador Lelong-Motta expressed her gratitude for the warm reception and outlined her priorities for her term in Malta. She highlighted the importance of deepening the partnership between France and Malta, noting the shared values and interests that unite the two countries. The Ambassador also underscored the potential for joint initiatives in various fields, including trade, technology, and education.

The courtesy call concluded with both parties expressing optimism for a fruitful partnership and a shared commitment to advancing common goals.
