PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Ambassador of Chile pays a courtesy visit to the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives

Ennio Augusto Vivaldi Vejar, the newly appointed Ambassador of Chile to Malta, was officially received by David Agius, Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives of Malta, following the presentation of his letter of credence. The meeting marks the beginning of a new chapter in diplomatic relations between Chile and Malta.

The Deputy Speaker welcomed Ambassador Vivaldi Vejar and expressed his enthusiasm for strengthening the ties between the two nations. He highlighted the potential for increased cooperation in various sectors, including trade, education, and cultural exchange. Deputy Speaker Agius underscored Malta's commitment to fostering robust and mutually beneficial relations with Chile, emphasising the shared values and interests that underpin the partnership.

Ambassador Vivaldi Vejar expressed his gratitude for the warm reception and conveyed Chile's eagerness to deepen its engagement with Malta. He outlined his objectives for his tenure, focusing on enhancing bilateral cooperation and exploring opportunities for collaborative projects that align with both countries' strategic interests.

The meeting concluded with a reaffirmation of both parties' dedication to advancing friendly relations between Chile and Malta. The Deputy Speaker and Ambassador Vivaldi Vejar agreed on the importance of continued dialogue and mutual support to achieve common goals and address global challenges.
