PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

High Commissioner of Malaysia pays a courtesy visit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives

The newly appointed High Commissioner of Malaysia, Hendy Anak Assan, paid a courtesy visit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Anglu Farrugia. This meeting marked an important step in strengthening the bilateral relations between Malaysia and Malta.

During the discussion, both leaders explored various topics of mutual interest, including trade, education, and cultural exchange. They emphasized the significance of enhancing cooperation between the two nations, with a focus on fostering economic partnerships and promoting educational opportunities for their citizens.

High Commissioner Assan expressed his commitment to furthering collaboration in areas that will benefit both countries, while Speaker Farrugia highlighted Malta's readiness to engage with Malaysia on various platforms. The meeting concluded with a mutual agreement to continue dialogue and explore new avenues for cooperation, reflecting the shared vision for a prosperous future between Malaysia and Malta.

The High Commissioner of Malaysia was accompanied by Honorary Consul, Nazzreno Vassallo.
