PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Courtesy visit by Gemma Cano Bene, Ambassador of the Principality Andorra, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives

Speaker of the House of Representatives Anġlu Farrugia welcomed the newly appointed Ambassador of Andorra to Malta Gemma Cano Bene, on a courtesy visit. The meeting provided an opportunity to discuss the relationship between Malta and Andorra, as well as potential areas for enhanced cooperation.

Key topics addressed during the meeting included:

1. Bilateral Relations: Both Speaker Anġlu Farrugia and Ambassador Gemma Cano Bene emphasised the importance of strengthening the ties between Malta and Andorra. They recognised the value of diplomatic relations in promoting mutual understanding and collaboration.
2. Trade Cooperation: The discussion highlighted opportunities for enhancing trade relations. Both leaders expressed a desire to explore ways to increase commercial exchanges and investment opportunities between the two nations.
3. Education and Cultural Exchange: The meeting also focused on the potential for cooperation in education and cultural initiatives. The Speaker and the ambassador discussed the importance of fostering cultural ties and educational partnerships that could benefit both countries.

The Speaker also expressed his warm welcome to Ambassador Gemma Cano Bene and affirmed Malta's commitment to working closely with Andorra in various sectors. He also highlighted the potential for collaborative projects that could enrich the experiences of citizens from both nations.

Ambassador Gemma Cano Bene expressed gratitude for the warm reception and conveyed her eagerness to strengthen the bilateral relationship through active cooperation in trade, education, and culture.

The meeting concluded with both leaders agreeing to maintain open lines of communication to further develop the relationship between Malta and Principality Andorra.
