Maltese parliamentary delegation participates in the 24th Winter Meeting of the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly

The Maltese delegation to the Parliamentary Assembly within the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE PA), led by Hon. Amanda Spiteri Grech, and comprising Hon. Alex Muscat and Hon. Claudette Buttigieg, attended the 24th Winter Meeting of the OSCE PA held in Vienna between 20 and 21 February 2025.

The Winter Meeting brought together more than 240 parliamentarians from around the OSCE area for discussion on current topics, particularly the developments in the Russian war on Ukraine. The meeting consisted of sessions of the General Committee on Political Affairs and Security, the General Committee on Democracy, Human Rights and Humanitarian Questions and the General Committee on Economic Affairs, Science, Technology and Environment, together with a number of Joint Committees which gave space to all the delegates to air their concerns on different issues. The Winter meeting ended with the Standing Committee meeting, comprised of heads of national delegations and Bureau members, in order to discuss administrative issues and guide the work of the Assembly.

In the sidelines of the Winter Meeting, the Maltese delegation held a meeting with the Maltese Embassy in Vienna for a discussion on the work done during the Maltese Presidency of the OSCE, as well as future projects of the Embassy.
