PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, meets with newly appointed Ambassador of Uzbekistan to Malta

Speaker of the House of Representatives Anġlu Farrugia welcomed the newly appointed Ambassador of Uzbekistan to Malta Abat Fayzullaev for a courtesy meeting at the Parliament of Malta. The meeting served as an opportunity to discuss and strengthen the bilateral relations between Malta and Uzbekistan, particularly in the areas of culture, education, and trade and commerce.

During the discussions, both parties reaffirmed their commitment to enhancing diplomatic ties and fostering greater collaboration between their respective countries. Speaker Anġlu Farrugia emphasised Malta's openness to exploring new avenues for cooperation with Uzbekistan, particularly in sectors that could lead to mutual benefits and economic growth. He also highlighted the importance of strengthening cultural and educational exchanges as key drivers for fostering deeper understanding and friendship between the two nations.

Ambassador Abat Fayzullaev expressed his appreciation for the warm welcome and conveyed Uzbekistan's interest in enhancing trade relations with Malta. He acknowledged Malta's strategic position within the European Union and its potential as a hub for economic engagement between Uzbekistan and European markets. He also discussed opportunities for academic collaboration and cultural initiatives that would further enrich the bilateral relationship.

Both parties agreed on the importance of continued dialogue and cooperation to maximise the potential of bilateral relations. Speaker Anġlu Farrugia extended his best wishes to Ambassador Abat Fayzullaev in his new role and expressed his confidence that the ongoing engagement between Malta and Uzbekistan would yield positive outcomes in the years ahead.
