PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

The Speaker of the House of Representatives receives the Ambassador of Peru to Malta Manuel José Antonio Cacho Sousa Velázquez

Speaker of the House of Representatives Anġlu Farrugia welcomed the newly appointed Ambassador of Peru to Malta Manuel José Antonio Cacho Sousa Velázquez for a courtesy meeting at the Parliament of Malta.

During the meeting, both parties engaged in a fruitful discussion on the strong and growing bilateral relations between Malta and Peru. They reaffirmed their commitment to enhancing diplomatic ties and cooperation in various sectors of mutual interest.

A key topic of discussion was cultural cooperation, with both parties expressing their enthusiasm for strengthening exchanges in arts, heritage, and education. They highlighted the importance of fostering deeper people-to-people connections through cultural initiatives that celebrate the rich histories and traditions of both nations.

Speaker Anġlu Farrugia and Ambassador Cacho Sousa Velázquez also addressed Malta's role in providing humanitarian aid and overseas development assistance to Peru. They discussed ways to enhance collaboration in this field, particularly in support of vulnerable communities and sustainable development initiatives.

The meeting concluded with a shared commitment to continue fostering diplomatic engagement and exploring new avenues for cooperation that benefit both Malta and Peru.
