PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Deputy Speaker receives the High Commissioner of Bangladesh to Malta

A constructive meeting took place today between the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives, David Agius, and the High Commissioner of Bangladesh to Malta, Nahida Rahman Shumona. The meeting focused on further strengthening the bilateral relations between Malta and Bangladesh, as well as addressing key issues in the areas of trade and migration.

During the discussions, Agius and Rahman Shumona highlighted the long-standing friendly ties between the two nations, emphasizing the importance of continued collaboration in various fields. Both parties acknowledged the potential for enhancing diplomatic, economic, and cultural exchanges, which would contribute to a more robust and mutually beneficial relationship.

Trade was a central topic of the conversation, with both sides expressing their commitment to expanding economic cooperation. The Deputy Speaker and Rahman Shumona discussed potential areas for growth, including the strengthening of bilateral trade relations, particularly in sectors such as agriculture, textiles, and renewable energy. Both agreed that facilitating trade agreements and fostering business opportunities would provide tangible benefits to the economies of both countries.

The issue of migration also formed an important part of the discussions, with both dignitaries recognising the significance of managing migration flows effectively.

The meeting concluded with both parties expressing their eagerness to continue building on the positive relationship between Malta and Bangladesh, with a shared vision of advancing mutual interests and addressing global challenges together.
