PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

The Speaker of the House of Representatives expresses deep condolences on the passing of Erdeniz Şen, Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey to Malta

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Anġlu Farrugia, has expressed profound sorrow upon receiving the news of the untimely passing of Erdeniz Şen, Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey to Malta.

The Speaker conveys his deepest condolences to the family of the late Ambassador and the Turkish authorities and his heartfelt sympathies and solidarity during this difficult time.

Speaker Farrugia describes Ambassador Sen as a distinguished diplomat and a true friend of Malta. His dedication and commitment to strengthening the bilateral relations between the two countries, particularly through parliamentary diplomacy, will be fondly remembered and deeply missed.

Speaker Farrugia highlighted the close working relationship he had developed with Ambassador Şen during his posting in Malta, noting the Ambassador's tireless efforts in fostering mutual understanding and cooperation between the Parliaments of Malta and Turkey.

Through the Ambassador's proactive and engaging approach, Şen played a pivotal role in promoting dialogue and enhancing collaboration at both bilateral and multilateral levels. His contribution towards deepening the friendship between our peoples and institutions has left a legacy.

The Speaker reaffirms Malta's continued commitment to the strong and longstanding ties with the Republic of Turkey, in memory of Ambassador Şen's exemplary service.
