PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

French Senator Olivier Cadic pays courtesy visit to Deputy Speaker David Agius

French Senator Olivier Cadic paid a courtesy visit today on the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives of Malta, David Agius, at the Parliament Building in Valletta.

The meeting served to reinforce the longstanding ties between France and Malta, as both officials engaged in a cordial and productive discussion on a range of issues, including bilateral relations, regional cooperation, and shared priorities within the European Union.

Deputy Speaker Agius welcomed Senator Cadic warmly, expressing appreciation for the visit and highlighting the importance of continued dialogue between the two countries.

Senator Cadic, who represents French citizens living abroad and is known for his advocacy of international collaboration, emphasized the value of parliamentary diplomacy in promoting mutual understanding and shared democratic values. “This visit is part of our ongoing efforts to build bridges and strengthen friendships across Europe,” he noted.

They also touched upon opportunities for enhanced collaboration in areas such as education, digital innovation, and the green transition, reaffirming a shared vision for a more connected and resilient Europe as well as enhancing parliamentary cooperation between respective institutions.

The visit concluded with a mutual commitment to maintaining open channels of communication and exploring future avenues for cooperation.

The Ambassador of France to Malta, Sandrine Lelong-Motta, was also present for the meeting.
