PRESS RELEASE BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Speaker-led delegation leaves Malta to participate in the Ninth Summit of Speakers of the PA-UfM

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Dr Anglu Farrugia, has departed Malta for Málaga to lead a parliamentary delegation at the Ninth Summit of Speakers and the 18th Plenary Session of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Union for the Mediterranean (PA-UfM).

The Summit brings together parliamentarians from across the Euro-Mediterranean region. The Maltese delegation is expected to put forward concrete proposals centred on peace, neutrality, and parliamentary responsibility, reaffirming the country's active and principled role in fostering regional stability and cooperation.

The delegation is composed of Carmelo Abela, Toni Bezzina, and Mr Ian Bajada.
