(c) sub-article (16) thereof shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(16) Subject to the provisions of sub-articles (6) to (9) and (13), the terms and conditions of the pledge of a debenture warrant shall be determined by agreement between the pledgor and the pledgee. The pledge of a debenture warrant shall be effective in relation to a third party from the date of delivery of the debenture warrant to the pledgee.".

Amendment of article 123 of the principal Act.

18. Sub-article (3A) of article 123 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(3a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, a company may make arrangements for some or all of its shares to be held in book-entry form:

Provided that the company shall remain responsible for ensuring the accuracy and integrity of the records of the relevant central securities depository or distributed ledger relating to its shareholders and shall ensure that it has access to such records at all times.".

Addition of a new article in the principal Act.

19. Immediately after article 123 of the principal Act, as amended, there shall be added the following new article:

"Register of officers' and shareholders' residential addresses.

123A.(1) Every company shall keep a register of the residential addresses of its officers and shareholders and shall enter therein the following particulars:

(a) the names of each of the company's officers and shareholders;

(b) the usual residential address of each of the company's officers and shareholders;

Provided that where an officer's or shareholder's usual residential address is the same as the service address, the register of the residential addresses of the company's officers and shareholders need only contain an entry to that effect:

Provided further that an officer's or shareholder's service address may be stated as the company's registered or principal office, so however that in such case the foregoing proviso shall not apply;

(c) the electronic mail address of each of the company's officers and shareholders.

(2) The directors and the company secretary shall be jointly and severally liable for ensuring that an electronic form, as prescribed by the Registrar, is submitted to the Registrar within fourteen (14) days of any change occurring in the residential addresses of the company's officers or shareholders. Such submission shall include an updated copy of the residential addresses register reflecting the said changes:

Provided that the Registrar shall store and keep the records as contained in the register of residential addresses of the company's officers and shareholders and that such register shall only be used for regulatory purposes and shall not be open to public inspection.

(3) If default is made in complying with the provisions of sub-article (2), every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a penalty, unless such default is remedied within thirty (30) days from receipt of a notice of default sent by the Registrar, , and to a further penalty for every day during which the default subsists:

Provided that the Registrar shall also refuse to register the change in officers or shareholders if the information required by this article has not been submitted, or if he is not satisfied that the company has provided accurate and up-to-date information concerning its officers and shareholders in accordance with the provisions of this Act."

Amendment of article 124 of the principal Act.

20. Sub-article (3A) of article 124 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(3a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, a company may make arrangements for some or all of its debentures to be held in book-entry form:

Provided that the company shall remain responsible to ensure the accuracy and integrity of the records of the relevant central securities depository or distributed ledger relating to its debenture holders and shall ensure that it has access to such records at all times."

Deletion of article 126A of the principal Act.

21. Article 126A of the principal Act shall be deleted.

Amendment of article 127 of the principal Act.

22. Sub-article (6) of article 127 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(6) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, this article shall not be deemed to imply that a company may have less than two (2) members:

Provided that a private company may have a single (1) member."

Amendment of article 131 of the principal Act.

23. Paragraph (b) of article 131 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new paragraph:

"(b) two (2) members personally present shall be a quorum, save that where a private company has a single (1) member, the provisions of article 212(4) shall apply."

Addition of a new article to the principal Act.

24. Immediately after article 135 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

"Resolutions in writing for public companies.

135A. Subject to the provisions of this Act, in the case of a public company, a resolution in writing signed by all members for the time being entitled to receive notice of, and to attend and vote at the general meetings shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the company duly convened and held, and the provisions of article 155 shall not apply. Annual general meetings of the company may be held in accordance with this article:

Provided that a resolution in writing shall be void if it purports to remove a director or an auditor before the expiration of his term of office, or otherwise purports to deprive the auditors of the right to attend and be heard at any general meeting of the company on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns them as auditors."

25. Sub-article (3) of article 159 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

Amendment of article 159 of the principal Act.

"(3) The company or the auditor shall, within fourteen (14) days from the deposit of a notice of resignation, give notice thereof to the Registrar for registration. If default is made in complying with this sub-article, every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a penalty and, for every day during which the default subsists, to a further penalty."

26. Sub-article (4) of article 168 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

Amendment of article 168 of the principal Act.

"(4) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette prescribe regulations in relation to the annual accounts of investment companies with fixed share capital."

27. Paragraph (c) of sub-article (2) of article 192 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new paragraph:

Amendment of article 192 of the principal Act.

"(c) the reduction of the issued share capital by extinguishing or reducing the liability of any member on any of the company's shares in respect of unpaid issued share capital, or by paying off paid up issued share capital, or pursuant to the reduction of an undistributable reserve carried out in accordance with sub-articles (1) to (3) of article 83, where such reduction was not carried out for the purposes of creating a distributable reserve; and"

C 216

Amendment of article 194 of the principal Act.

28. Sub-article (2) of article 194 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(2) In sub-article (1)(a), "liabilities" includes any provision recognised in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practice applicable under this Act and any subsidiary legislation made thereunder."

Substitution of article 202 of the principal Act.

29. Article 202 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

"202. For the purposes of articles 192 and 193, any provision of any kind, or any amount recognised as an expense, loss, impairment, depreciation, amortisation, expected loss, expected credit loss, write-down or other valuation adjustment to reflect decreases in asset values, recognised in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practice, shall be treated as a realised loss."

Substitution of article 203 of the principal Act.

30. Article 203 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

"203. Where a company makes a distribution consisting of, or including, or treated as arising in consequence of the sale, transfer or other disposition of a non-cash asset, and any part of the amount at which that asset is stated in the accounts relevant for the purposes of the distribution in accordance with articles 197 to 202 represents an unrealised profit, that profit shall be treated as a realised profit:

(a) for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the distribution in accordance with this Act, whether before or after the distribution takes place; and

(b) for the purpose of the application, in relation to anything done with a view to or in connection with the making of the distribution, of any provision of this Act or any other applicable legislation, under which only realised profits are to be included in or transferred to the profit and loss account."

Addition of a new article to the principal Act.

31. Immediately after article 203 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

"Distributions
in kind and
of amount.

203A. (1) This article applies for the purpose of determining the amount of a distribution consisting of or including, or treated as arising in consequence of the sale, transfer or other disposition by a company of a non-cash asset, where if the amount of the distribution were to be determined in accordance with this article, the company may carry out the distribution without breaching this Act.

(2) The amount of the distribution, or the relevant part of it, is taken to be:

(a) in the case where the amount or value of the consideration received by the company for the transfer or other disposition of the non-cash asset is not less than the book value of the asset, zero; and

(b) in any other case, the amount by which the book value of the asset exceeds the amount or value of any consideration received by the company for the transfer or other disposition of the said asset.

(3) Where the amount or value of any consideration for the sale, transfer or other disposition exceeds the book value of the asset, the company's profits available for distribution are treated as increased by the amount, if any, by which the amount or value of any consideration for the sale, transfer or other disposition exceeds the book value of the asset.

(4) In this article "book value", in relation to an asset, means the amount at which the asset is stated in the relevant accounts or, where the asset is not so stated at any amount, zero.

(5) The provisions of articles 197 to 202 shall have effect subject to the provisions of this article."

32. Article 206 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the Substitution of article 206 of the principal

Act.

C 218

following new article:

"Capitalisation of undistributable reserves.

206. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of articles 192 and 193, a company may apply amounts standing to the credit of any undistributable reserve, including the share premium account and the capital redemption reserve, in paying up in full unissued shares of the company to be allotted to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares.

(2) An application under sub-article (1) shall not constitute a "distribution" for the purposes of this Act."

Amendment of article 211 of the principal Act

33. Sub-article (2) of article 211 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(2) The conditions required by sub-article (1) are:

(a) that the number of persons holding debentures of the company is not more than fifty (50); and

(b) neither the company nor any of its directors is party to an arrangement whereby the policy of the company is capable of being determined by persons other than the directors, members or debenture holders thereof."

Substitution of article 212 of the principal Act.

34. Article 212 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

"212. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a private company may have a single (1) member.

(2) The provisions of article 214(2)(b)(i) shall not apply to companies falling within the terms of this article.

(3) A private company may have a single (1) member upon registration or it may become a single member company through the acquisition of all its shares by one (1) person.

(4) The single (1) member shall exercise the powers of the general meeting of the company and the decisions taken by that member in this capacity shall be recorded as minutes of the general meeting and the provisions of this Act regulating general meetings shall apply. The decisions referred to in this sub-article shall be deemed to be resolutions of the company for the purposes of the application of the provisions of this Act:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-article shall not prejudice the rights of the auditors of the company in accordance with the provisions of article 155, nor the rights granted under the articles of the company to persons entitled to receive notice of, attend and be heard at general meetings of the company.

(5) The single (1) member shall record in writing all agreements between him and the company represented by him in a minute book kept by the company specifically for the purpose.

(6) If the provisions of sub-article (5) are not complied with, the single member shall be liable to a penalty."

35. Paragraph (b) of sub-article (2) of article 214 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

Amendment of article 214 of
the principal
Act.

(i) in the proviso to sub-paragraph (i) thereof the words "single member companies specified in article 212(3)" shall be substituted by the words "a private company having any single (1) member in accordance with article 212";

(ii) in sub-paragraph (iv) thereof the words "wound up voluntarily." shall be substituted by the words "wound up voluntarily;"

(iii) immediately after sub-paragraph (iv) thereof, as amended, there shall be added the following new sub-paragraph:

"(v) if the company is in breach of or fails to satisfy the requirements stipulated in any of article 69(1a) to (1c)."

36. Article 214A of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

Amendment of article 214A of the principal
Act.

(a) the proviso to sub-article (1) thereof shall be substituted by the following new proviso:

" Provided that the provisions of this article shall not apply to entities regulated by any applicable law in Malta or to public limited companies or to any other such company which, at the time of application, is not in good standing with the Registrar due to outstanding statutory filings or unpaid administrative penalties.";

(b) paragraph (d) of sub-article (2) thereof shall be deleted;

(c) sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (c) of sub-article (3) thereof shall be substituted by the following new sub-paragraph:

"(i) an extraordinary resolution of the shareholders of the company has been duly adopted to approve the simplified voluntary dissolution procedure referred to in this article, in accordance with the company's memorandum and articles of association;"

Amendment of article 218 of
the principal
Act.

37. Article 218 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) sub-article (1) thereof shall be amended as follows:

(i) in paragraph (a) thereof the words "with article 214(1)(a);" shall be substituted by the words "with article 214(1)(a):" and immediately thereafter there shall be added the following new proviso:

" Provided that where the application is made by the company following a decision of the general meeting or by its board of directors, the share capital of the company shall be fully paid up before the application is filed and the application shall be accompanied by a statement of affairs of the company;"

(ii) in the proviso thereof the words "or director of the company." shall be substituted by the words "or director of the company:" and immediately thereafter there shall be added the following new proviso:

"Provided further that the winding up application shall, on pain of nullity, include sufficient information clearly indicating whether it is being made on the basis of paragraph (a), (b), or (c), as well as the reasons why the applicant considers that the relevant grounds for making the winding up application subsist, in terms of article 214(1)(a), 214(2)(a), or 214(2)(b), as the case may be.";

(b) sub-article (6) thereof shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(6) The directors, the company secretary and every contributory shareholder and creditor of the company shall be entitled to make submissions on the hearing of a winding up application made under this article, provided that they have informed the court by means of a note, that they intend to make submissions during the said hearing.";

(c) in sub-article (8) thereof the words "a copy thereof shall forthwith be forwarded" shall be substituted by the words "a copy thereof shall forthwith and without delay be forwarded".

38. Article 220 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

Substitution of article 220 of the principal Act.

"Stay of proceedings against company.

220. (1) After the filing of a winding up application, and until such time as the winding up application is dismissed or the winding up order is stayed or dismissed, no action or proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the company or its property except by the leave of the court and subject to such terms as the court may impose:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-article shall not prevent any appeal from being proceeded with or commenced against any decision, order or judgment having been made prior to the winding up application.

(2) The court, or any other relevant court before which an action or proceeding in accordance with sub-article (1) may be instituted, shall suspend, stay or disallow any action or proceeding ex officio upon being notified that a winding up application has been filed and that leave has not been given to proceed with or commence an action or proceeding against the company.

Cap. 631. (3) Where a winding up application has been filed and before the making of a winding up order, the court may grant leave for the company, or any creditor or contributory of the company, or the provisional administrator, to make an application for entry into a preventive restructuring procedure in accordance with the Pre-Insolvency Act, provided that it is not manifestly clear, in the opinion of the court, that preventive restructuring is unlikely to achieve a better outcome for the body of creditors than would be achieved if the company were to be wound up without having first been placed under preventive restructuring:

Cap. 631. Provided that the court shall, if it has given leave for the making of an application for entry into a preventive restructuring procedure in accordance with the Pre-Insolvency Act, refrain from making a winding up order until the application has been decided:

Provided further that the court shall dismiss a winding up application if the company is placed under preventive restructuring."

Amendment of article 223 of the principal Act.

39. Immediately after sub-article (2) of article 223 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new sub-article:

"(3) Where a winding up order is dismissed in accordance with the provisions of article 248, the company shall, as of the date that the winding up order is dismissed, no longer be in a state of dissolution."

Amendment of article 226 of the principal Act.

40. Article 226 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) in sub-article (1) thereof the words "Where the court has made" shall be substituted by the words "Where the company has made a winding up application or the court has made";

(b) in paragraph (d) of sub-article (2) thereof the words "to which the statement relates." shall be substituted by the words "to which the statement relates;" and immediately thereafter there shall be added the following new paragraph:

"(e) who have provided their services in relation to the administration of the company or its compliance with any provision of the law within the said twelve (12) months, and who, in the opinion of the official receiver, are capable of giving the information required."

41. In sub-article (2) of article 244 of the principal Act the words "shall forthwith deliver" shall be substituted by the words "shall forthwith and without delay deliver".

Amendment of article 244 of the principal Act.

42. Article 248 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

Substitution of article 248 of the principal Act.

"Power to stay or dismiss winding up proceedings.

248. (1) The court may, at any time after the granting of a winding up order, on the application of the liquidator, the official receiver, any creditor or contributory, make an order:

(a) staying the winding up proceedings, for such duration and on such terms and conditions as the court deems appropriate, upon it being proven to the satisfaction of the court that all proceedings in relation to the winding up ought to be stayed, provided that any such stay of proceedings shall not affect the continuing validity or operation of the winding up order; or

(b) dismissing the winding up proceedings, on such terms and conditions as the court deems appropriate, upon it being proved to the satisfaction of the court that, in view of circumstances arising after the making of the original winding up order, the grounds for the making of such order no longer subsist or would be remedied if the winding up order were to be dismissed.

(2) Where winding up proceedings are dismissed in accordance with this article, the court shall, by the order dismissing the winding up proceedings, give such directions and make such provisions as it deems fit to place the company and all other persons in the same position as if the company had not been placed in dissolution, release the liquidator from his appointment, and direct the Registrar of Courts to deliver a notice of the release to the Registrar for registration forthwith and without delay.

(3) The court may, either on the application of any person interested in the winding up or of its own motion, before making any order in accordance with this article, require the official receiver or liquidator to furnish to the court a report with respect to any facts or matters which are in its opinion relevant to the application.

(4) A copy of every order made under this article shall forthwith and without delay be forwarded by the Registrar of Courts to the Registrar and Registrar of Companies for registration."

Amendment of article 258 of the principal Act.

43. Sub-article (2) of article 258 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) in paragraph (d) thereof the words "by the special controller in the course of his office in terms of articles 329A and 329B" shall be substituted by the words "by the insolvency practitioner";

(b) paragraph (e) thereof shall be substituted by the following new paragraph:

"(e) the remuneration of the insolvency practitioner";

(c) paragraph (m) thereof shall be substituted by the following new paragraph:

Cap. 631. "(m) any interim financing granted to the company for the purpose of a preventive restructuring procedure in accordance with the Pre-Insolvency Act;"

(d) immediately after paragraph (m), as substituted, there shall be added the following new paragraph:

Cap. 631. "(n) any new financing granted to the company for the purpose of a preventive restructuring procedure in accordance with the Pre-Insolvency Act."

Amendment of article 275 of the principal Act.

44. In sub-article (2) of article 275 of the principal Act the words "shall forthwith forward a copy" shall be substituted by the words "shall forthwith and without delay forward a copy".

45. In sub-article (2) of article 285 of the principal Act the words "shall forthwith forward a copy" shall be substituted by the words "shall forthwith and without delay forward a copy".

Amendment of article 285 of the principal Act.

46. In sub-article (4) of article 292 of the principal Act the words "shall forthwith be forwarded" shall be substituted by the words "shall forthwith and without delay be forwarded".

Amendment of article 292 of the principal Act.

47. In sub-article (2) of article 300 of the principal Act the words "shall forthwith deliver a notice" shall be substituted by the words "shall forthwith and without delay forward a notice".

Amendment of article 300 of the principal Act.

48. Immediately after article 302 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

Addition of a new article to the principal Act.

"Conversion of debts.

"302A. Where a proved debt is denominated in a foreign currency, the amount of such debt shall be converted into euro, by reference to the deemed date of dissolution, using the official euro reference middle exchange rate published by the European Central Bank or the indicative middle exchange rate published by the Central Bank of Malta, as the case may be, for that date."

49. Article 303 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

Amendment of article 303 of the principal Act.

(a) in sub-article (1) thereof the words "shall be void." shall be substituted by the words "shall be void:" and immediately thereafter there shall be added the following new proviso:

" Provided that where the person in whose favour the act is made or the obligation is incurred, as referred to in this sub-article, is a related person or a related entity, the said period of six (6) months before the dissolution of the company shall be extended to a period of twenty-four (24) months before the dissolution of the company.";

(b) in sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of sub-article (2) thereof the words "not occurred." shall be substituted by the words "not occurred;" and immediately thereafter there shall be added the following new paragraphs:

"(c) a person is a related person if, at the time of the act or obligation being contested in accordance with this article, that person was:

C 226

Cap. 631.

- (i) a director or manager of the company;
- (ii) a member of the company;
- (iii) appointed as insolvency practitioner responsible of assisting the debtor in a preventive restructuring procedure in accordance with the Pre-Insolvency Act; or
- (iv) a partner or employee of, or a person related by consanguinity or affinity in the direct line, or in the collateral line up to the third degree, to a related person in accordance with sub-paragraphs (i), (ii), or (iii);
- (d) a person is a related entity if, at the time of the act or obligation being contested in terms of this article, that person was:
 - (i) a group company, in relation to the company;
 - (ii) a commercial partnership having, as its partner, any of the persons referred to in sub-paragraphs (i) to (iii) of paragraph (c); or
 - (iii) a company, or a subsidiary or parent company thereof, in which more than half the voting power is exercised, directly or indirectly, separately or jointly, by any of the persons referred to in sub-paragraphs (i) to (iii) of paragraph (c)."

Amendment of article 307 of the principal Act.

50. In sub-article (1) of article 307 of the principal Act the words "When a company has been dissolved in accordance with the provisions of article 214, any person, being a past or present officer of the company, shall be guilty of an offence if, within the twelve months immediately preceding the deemed date of dissolution, he has -" shall be substituted by the words "When a company has been dissolved in accordance with the provisions of article 214, any person, being a past or present officer of the company, shall be guilty of an offence if he has:".

Substitution of article 325 of the principal Act.

51. Article 325 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

"Defunct companies.

325. (1) When the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a commercial partnership is not carrying on business or is not in operation, he may send a letter by post to the commercial partnership, inquiring whether the commercial partnership is carrying on business or is in operation.

(2) If the Registrar receives a reply to the effect that the commercial partnership is not carrying on business or is not in operation, or does not receive a reply within one (1) month from sending the letter referred to in sub-article (1), he may send to the commercial partnership by post, and publish a notice in the Gazette or on a website maintained by the Registrar and in a daily newspaper circulating wholly or mainly in Malta that, at the expiration of three (3) months from the date of the last publication of the said notice, the commercial partnership's name shall, unless cause to the contrary is shown prior to the expiration of such period or the Registrar is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds not to proceed with the striking off, be struck off the register and the assets of the commercial partnership shall devolve upon the Government of Malta.

(3) If in any case where a commercial partnership is being wound up voluntarily, the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe either that no liquidator is acting or that the affairs of the commercial partnership are fully wound up, and the returns required to be made by the liquidator in accordance with article 322 are overdue by six (6) months or more, the Registrar may publish in the Gazette or on a website maintained by the Registrar and in a daily newspaper circulating wholly or mainly in Malta, a notice stating that, upon the expiration of three (3) months from the date of the last publication of the said notice, the winding up of the commercial partnership shall, unless cause to the contrary is shown prior to the expiry of that period, be deemed to be concluded and consequently, the commercial partnership's name be struck off the register. The Registrar shall also cause a copy of the said notice to be sent by post to the commercial partnership and to the liquidator, if any. Upon the expiration of the said period of three (3) months, the winding up of the commercial partnership shall, unless cause to the contrary is shown prior to the expiry of such period, be deemed to be concluded, and the Registrar shall strike the name of the commercial partnership off the register, and consequently the commercial partnership's assets shall devolve upon the Government of Malta.

(4) If any member or creditor of the commercial partnership, or any other person who appears to the court to have an interest feels aggrieved by the fact that the name of the commercial partnership has been struck off from the register by virtue of this article, the court may, on an application made by the member, creditor or such other person, before the expiration of ten (10) years from the publication of the notice of the striking off referred to in sub-articles (2) and (3), if it is satisfied that it is proper that the name of the commercial partnership be restored to the register, order that such name be restored to the register. Upon an official copy of the order being delivered by the Registrar of the Courts to the Registrar for registration, the commercial partnership shall be deemed to have continued in existence as if its name had not been struck off, and the court may by its order give such directions and make such provisions as it deems fit for placing the commercial partnership and all other persons, as nearly as may be, in the same position as if the name of the commercial partnership had not been struck off. The Registrar shall forthwith proceed to publish a notice in the Gazette or on a website maintained by the Registrar and in a daily newspaper circulating wholly or mainly in Malta that the name of the commercial partnership has been restored to the register:

Provided that in the event that the court has ordered that a commercial partnership's name shall be restored to the register in accordance with this sub-article, and the court by its decree, has directed that the name of the commercial partnership be restored on the register for a definite period and such period is nearing its expiration, any member or creditor of the commercial partnership, or any other person who appears before the court and informs it that it has an interest, would still have such an interest due to ongoing proceedings, the said person may, jointly with the Registrar, submit a joint application to the court requesting for an extension of the time period for which the commercial partnership's name is to remain restored to the register:

Provided further that the said joint application before the court is to be accompanied, on pain of nullity, with documentary evidence, including the pending court case reference number of the ongoing proceedings:

Provided further that any member may apply to the Registrar for restoration within five (5) years from the publication of the notice of striking off referred to in sub-articles (2) and (3):

Provided further that the Registrar may only restore the name once the commercial partnership's affairs are regularised through the filing of all outstanding documents and the payment of all applicable fees and penalties, and the submission of any other documentation that the Registrar may require.

(5) A notice required to be sent to a liquidator under this article may be addressed to the liquidator at his last known place of business or address, and any letter or notice required to be sent to a commercial partnership under this article shall be addressed to the commercial partnership at its registered office.

(6) Notwithstanding that the name of the commercial partnership has been struck off the register in accordance with the preceding provisions of this article, the liability, if any, of every director or other officer and of every member of the commercial partnership shall subsist and may be enforced as if the name of the commercial partnership had not been struck off the register.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of article 429(1), the provisions of this article shall apply to commercial partnerships whose dissolution and consequential winding up is regulated by the Ordinance."

- 52. Article 327 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

Substitution of article 327 of the principal Act.

"Use of mediation for compromise or arrangement with creditors and members.

Cap. 474.

327. (1) Where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between a company and its members, or between the company and its creditors or a class of creditors, the company or any member or creditor, with the sanction of not less than two-thirds of the members or creditors or class of creditors by reference to the value of their claims, may request the appointment of a mediator in accordance with article 20 of the Mediation Act. Such mediator shall summon a meeting of the members, creditors or class of creditors that would be affected by the proposed terms, in order for the company and the members or creditors or class of creditors to unanimously agree upon the proposed terms of compromise or arrangement, and the provisions of the Mediation Act shall apply.

(2) If as a result of the mediation process, the company by extraordinary resolution, together with its members or creditors, enters into a compromise or arrangement in the form of a written agreement, it shall be binding on all persons that are a party thereto, as well as on the company or, in the case of a company in the course of being wound up, on the liquidator or, in the case of a company under administration, on the administrator, but shall not be binding upon, or prejudicial to, any members or creditors or other persons who have not executed the agreement and are not a party to the compromise or arrangement.

(3) Where, without the appointment of a mediator in accordance with sub-article (1), a compromise or arrangement has been discussed between a company and its members, creditors or a class of creditors, and the proposed compromise or arrangement has received the unanimous support of all the members, creditors or class of creditors that would be affected by the proposed terms, the parties to the proposed arrangement may unanimously appoint an insolvency practitioner to approve the compromise or arrangement.

(4) Where the insolvency practitioner is satisfied that the company by extraordinary resolution, together with its members or creditors, has entered into a compromise or arrangement discussed in accordance with sub-article (3) in the form of a written agreement, and that the compromise or arrangement is not be prejudicial to any members, creditors or other persons who are not a party thereto, the insolvency practitioner shall approve the compromise or arrangement which shall become binding on all creditors who are a party thereto and on the company or, in the case of a company in the course of being wound up, on the liquidator or, in the case of a company under administration, on the administrator:

Provided that the compromise or arrangement shall not be binding upon, or prejudicial to any members or creditors or other persons who have not entered into, and are not a party to, the compromise or arrangement

(5) For the purposes of this article and article 328:

(a) "company" means any company which is unable to pay its debts in accordance with article 214(5), or in those circumstances where the court is of the opinion that there are grounds of sufficient gravity that would otherwise warrant the dissolution and consequent winding up of the company in accordance with article 214(2)(b)(iii), or which has been placed under administration, or which is in the course of being wound up; and

(b) "arrangement" includes a reorganisation of the company's share capital by the consolidation of shares of different classes or by the division of shares into shares of different classes, or by both of those methods."

53. Article 329A of the principal Act shall be substituted by

54. Article 329B of the principal Act shall be deleted.

Amendment of article 343 of the principal Act.

55. Sub-article (7) of article 343 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(7) A company may only be amalgamated with one (1) or more companies, and may not be amalgamated with any other kind of commercial partnership:

Provided that in the case of a cell company as defined in any regulations made in accordance with the Act, every cell of a cell company and that part of a cell company in which non-cellular assets are held, shall each be deemed, to the extent necessary, to be a separate company with separate legal personality for all intents and purposes of this Title:

Provided further that any words and expressions in this Title II which are referable to a company shall be construed accordingly, and the interpretation of any such words and expressions insofar as applicable to a cell company shall be made on the basis of the relevant provisions of the regulations made under the Act regulating such cell company."

Amendment of article 358 of the principal Act.

56. Article 358 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) the marginal note thereof shall be substituted by the following new marginal note:

"Simplified formalities for certain mergers by acquisition."

(b) sub-article (1) thereof shall be substituted by the following new sub-article:

"(1) (a) In the case of a merger by acquisition of one (1) or more companies by an acquiring company which:

(i) is the holder of all the shares and other securities conferring the right to vote at general meetings of the companies being acquired;

(ii) is held, directly or indirectly, by one (1) person who also holds, directly or indirectly, all of the shares or other securities conferring the right to vote at general meetings in the companies being acquired; or

(iii) has its issued share capital held, in the same proportion and by the same members, as the companies being acquired, the provisions of articles 344 to 356 shall apply, to the exclusion of the provisions contained in article 344(2)(b), (c) and (d), article 346, article 348, article 349(1)(d) and (e), article 354(1)(b) and article 355.

(b) In the case of mergers by acquisition which fall within the scope of paragraph (a), no shares shall be issued by the acquiring company as a result of the merger."

57. In sub-article (1) of article 359 of the principal Act the words "Where a merger by acquisition is carried out by a company which holds ninety per cent or more, but not all, of the shares and other securities conferring the right to vote at general meetings of the company or companies being acquired, the general meeting of the acquiring company need not approve the acquisition provided the following conditions are fulfilled:" shall be substituted by the words "When a merger by acquisition is carried out by a company which holds ninety per cent (90%) or more, but not all, of the shares and other securities conferring the right to vote at general meetings of the company or companies being acquired and where the provisions of article 358 do not apply, the general meeting of the acquiring company need not approve the acquisition provided the following conditions are fulfilled:".

"(6) The inspector referred to in articles 414 to 417, shall be selected, authorised and, or appointed by the Registrar from persons he deems competent to act as inspectors for the purposes of article 414, and may include inter alia officers from the Registry, officers from the National Foreign Direct Investment Screening Office, officers from the Malta Competition and Consumer Affairs Authority and officers from the Department of Contracts and any other person whom the Registrar considers necessary for the purposes of an inspection:

Provided that the said authorisation and, or appointment may be revoked at any time by the Registrar."

Addition of a new article to the principal Act.

60. Immediately after article 411 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

Appeal.

Cap. 12.

411A. (1) Any final order or decision of the court, in a cause instituted in terms of articles 214, 300A, 300B, 303, 304, 315, 316, 325, or 402, shall be deemed to be a judgment of the court, from which there shall lie a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal constituted in accordance with article 41 of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure:

Provided that an interim decree given by the court shall not be deemed to be a judgment of the court, and there shall be no right of appeal.

(2) An appeal made in accordance with sub-article (1) may be entered by the contending parties by means of an application filed in the registry of the Court of Appeal within twenty (20) days from the date of the judgment."

61. Article 414 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

Substitution of article 414 of the principal Act.

"Powers of inspections and information gathering.

"414.(1) For the purposes of this article and articles 415 to 417 the term "undertaking" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in Regulation (EU) 2022/2025, and "association of undertakings" shall be interpreted accordingly.

(2) The Registrar and, or any inspectors duly authorised and, or appointed by the Registrar in accordance with article 403(6), duly authorised by a warrant issued by a Magistrate may, for the purposes of an inspection in accordance with Article 14(1) of Regulation (EU) 2022/2560, or for the purposes of an inspection or other fact-finding measure in accordance with Article 14(7) of Regulation (EU) 2022/2025, conduct all necessary announced or unannounced inspections and, or other fact-finding measures and enter into and search any premises, land or means of transport, of the undertaking or association of undertakings that shall be subject to a European Commission investigation in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2022/2025.

(3) In the course of any search in accordance with sub-article (2), the Registrar and, or any inspector shall be empowered to:

(a) inspect and examine any object or document, including books and other records related to the business, irrespective of the medium on which they are stored and, access any information or document which are accessible to the entity subject to the inspection, and take or request copies or extracts from those books or records:

Cap. 379.

Provided that this shall include the power to search for documents, files or data on devices which are not precisely identified in advance in accordance with the article 12(7)(c) of the Competition Act:

Provided further that the power to examine books or records covers all forms of correspondence, including electronic messages irrespective of whether they appear to be unread or have been deleted:

(b) seize and confiscate any object or document, or take or obtain in any form, copies of or extracts from such books or records or any other document and where they consider it appropriate, to continue making such searches for information and the selection of copies or extracts at the premises of the office or at any other designated premises;

(c) require any information which is stored in a computer or any other object or device including external servers and cloud services which are accessible from the premises, land or means of transport, and which the Registrar and, or the inspectors consider relevant to the investigation, to be delivered in a form in which it can be taken away and in which it is visible and legible;

(d) order the non-removal of objects or documents from any such premises, land or means of transport;

(e) ask any representative or member or staff of the undertaking or association of undertakings concerned for an explanation of any fact or document relating to the subject-matter and purpose of the inspection, or to state to the best of their knowledge and belief where the documents may be found, and record the replies;

(f) close and seal any or all parts of such premises, land or means of transport, or put any books or records or any other object or document under seal for the period and to the extent necessary for the inspection;

(g) take any steps which appear to be necessary to preserve any object or document or to prevent any interference with such object or document.

(4) The Registrar and, or any of the inspectors entering premises, land or means of transport in accordance with this article may take such equipment as appears to them to be necessary.

(5) In the course of an inspection under this article, the undertakings or association of undertakings or persons subject to the inspection may be assisted by legal counsel of their choice:

Provided that inspectors may wait a reasonable time, not exceeding sixty (60) minutes, for the legal counsel to arrive before starting the inspection and during this time, inspectors may take any reasonable measures to prevent any potential tampering with evidence or to prevent any potential communication by which other undertakings will be informed that investigation is taking place:

Provided further that the right of such assistance may delay but shall not have the effect of suspending the inspection.

(6) The Registrar shall always issue a receipt to the person on the premises or in control of any object that has been seized:

Provided that anything which has been lawfully seized by the Registrar and any order given by the Registrar in accordance with this article may be retained or shall remain in force as long as it is considered necessary by the Registrar.

(7) A search may not commence on any premises, land or means of transport subsequent to seven o'clock (07:00 p.m.) in the evening and prior to seven o'clock (07:00 a.m.) of the next following morning, unless there is reason to believe that such delay could cause the loss of information and the search is expressly authorised by the Magistrate, to take place between the said times.

(8) To assist the European Commission in accordance with Article 13(5) and Article 14 of Regulation (EU) 2022/2025, and to carry out the duties assigned to him by virtue of this article, the Registrar and, or the inspectors, as the case may be, may request any undertaking or association of undertakings to provide him, or them, with any information or document which are accessible to such undertaking and, or association of undertakings, including information regarding its tender in a public procurement procedure, which the Registrar and, or the inspectors have a valid reason to believe are necessary to the matter under investigation, within such time that in the circumstances of the investigation the Registrar and, or the inspectors may consider reasonable:

Provided that to assist the European Commission in accordance with Article 13(5) and Article 14 of Regulation (EU) 2022/2025, and to carry out the duties assigned to him by virtue of this article, the Registrar may also, taking into account the principle of proportionality, request any other natural or legal persons to provide any information or document that may be required, including information regarding their tenders in public procurement procedures, within a specified and reasonable time limit:

Provided further that a request for information in accordance with this sub-article shall:

(a) state its legal basis and its purpose, specify the information that is required and indicate the time limit within which the information is to be provided;

(b) contain a statement that if the information supplied is incorrect, incomplete or misleading, the fines (multa) or periodic penalty payments provided for in article 417 could be imposed;

(c) contain a statement that, in accordance with Article 16 of Regulation (EU) 2022/2025, a lack of cooperation shall allow the European Commission to take a decision on the basis of the facts that are available to it:

Provided further that the European Commission and, or the Registrar may interview a natural or legal person who consents to be interviewed for the purpose of collecting information relating to the subject matter of an investigation under Regulation (EU) 2022/2025."

62. Article 415 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

Substitution of article 415 of the principal Act.

"Issue of warrant and appeal from refusal.

"415. (1) The powers conferred by article 414(2), (3), (4) and (5) shall be exercised by the Registrar and, or the inspectors on production of the warrant issued under article 414.

(2) In deciding whether to issue a warrant under article 414, the Magistrate shall ensure that the coercive measures envisaged are neither arbitrary nor excessive, and the warrant shall specify the subject-matter, purpose of the inspection, the date on which the inspection may begin and the relevant penalties in accordance with article 417:

Provided that without prejudice to the right of obtaining a new warrant for the same purpose, the warrant may not be executed after the lapse of thirty (30) days from the date of issue.

Cap. 9.

(3) Notwithstanding any provisions contained in the Criminal Code, the Registrar shall have the right to appeal against a decision of the Court of Magistrates to refuse to issue a warrant under this article, before the Court of Criminal Appeal within five (5) days from the date of such a decision and the Court of Criminal Appeal shall endeavour to decide in the shortest time possible."

63. Article 416 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

Substitution of article 416 of the principal Act.

"Police assistance.

"416. (1) During any search in accordance with article 414, the Registrar and, or any of the inspectors may request the assistance of the police and, in such case the police shall require a warrant issued by the Magistrate to assist the Registrar and, or the inspectors in the search.

C 240

(2) Where police assistance is sought by the European Commission in accordance with Article 14(6) of Regulation (EU) No 2022/2560, a warrant from a Magistrate shall be required.

(3) In issuing a warrant enabling the European Commission to carry out an inspection in terms of Article 14 of Regulation (EU) No 2022/2560, the Magistrate shall follow the provisions of article 415:

Cap. 9. Provided that articles 414 to 416 shall not be deemed to detract from the powers of the police under the Criminal Code or under any other law."

Substitution of article 417 of the principal Act.

64. Article 417 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

"Obstruction, non-compliance and penalties.

"417.(1) Where during the course of any inspection in accordance with article 414, a person being a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of an undertaking or association of undertakings, knowingly or recklessly:

(a) gives any false, incorrect or misleading information;

(b) supplies incomplete information;

(c) prevents or hinders any investigation;

(d) produces or furnishes, or causes or knowingly allows to be produced or furnished, any document or information which he knows to be false in any particular material;

(e) fails without reasonable cause to supply the information requested;

(f) refuses to produce any book or document which it is his duty under article 414 to produce to the inspectors;

(g) refuses to attend before the inspectors when required to do so;

(h) refuses to answer any question put to him by the inspectors with respect to the affairs of the undertaking or association of undertakings, as the case may be; or

(i) does not comply with any lawful order of an inspector or of a European Commission inspector or of the Police assisting the said inspectors;

he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine (multa) of not more than four thousand and six hundred and fifty-eight euro (€4,658), or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months, or to both such fine (multa) and imprisonment.

(2) The court shall impose a penalty on any undertaking and, or association of undertakings not exceeding fifty thousand euro (€50,000), where any undertaking and, or association of undertakings in the course of any inspection in accordance with article 414, intentionally or negligently:

(a) produces or furnishes, or causes or knowingly allows to be produced or furnished any document or information which they know to be false in any particular material;

(b) fails to comply with an inspection and, or obstructs the Registrar and, or any inspector in the exercise of their powers under a warrant issued under articles 414 and 415 and, or of the police assisting the said inspectors in accordance with article 416;

(c) breaks the seals affixed by the inspectors during an inspection;

(d) in response to a question referred to in article 414(3)(v) gives an incorrect, misleading reply, fails or refuses to provide a complete reply; or

(e) discloses information to any third party not party to the proceedings concerned in accordance with article 414.

(3) Where an undertaking or an association of undertakings, intentionally or negligently:

(a) fails to submit to an inspection in accordance with article 414;

(b) produces the required books or other records related to the business in incomplete form during inspections in accordance with article 414;

(c) in response to a question asked in accordance with article 414(3)(v) and article 414(8):

(i) gives an incorrect or misleading reply;

(ii) fails to rectify within a time-limit established by the inspectors or by the European Commission an incorrect, incomplete or misleading reply given by a member of staff; or

(iii) fails or refuses to provide a complete reply on facts relating to the subject-matter and purpose of an inspection in accordance with article 414;

that undertaking or association of undertakings shall be liable, upon conviction to a periodic penalty payment, not exceeding five per cent (5%) of the average daily aggregate turnover of the undertaking or association of undertakings concerned in the preceding financial year for each working day of delay, calculated from the date established in the decision, until it submits complete and correct information as required by the court, or until it submits to an inspection.

(4) Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or by a person acting on behalf of a body corporate, and is proved to have been so committed with the consent, connivance or approval of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of any other officer of such body or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, such person shall also be guilty of an offence and shall be proceeded against and be liable to a penalty as if he had committed the offence."

Objects and Reasons

The objects and reasons of this Bill are to amend various provisions in the Companies Act (Cap. 386) in order to enhance practicality and legislative alignment with existing European Union legislation, implement the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2022/2560 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 December 2022 on foreign subsidies distorting the internal market, and introduce modern preventive restructuring and insolvency systems. Additionally, this Bill introduces new criteria requiring every Maltese company to maintain a clear nexus with the jurisdiction.
