C 262

Soċjali" in its name unless it is one which is registered in accordance with this Act and any breach of this sub-article shall constitute an offence under this Act."

Addition of a new article to the principal Act.

4. Immediately after article 11 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

"Legal personality of the Regulator.

11A. (1) The Regulator shall have a separate and distinct legal personality and shall be capable, subject to the provisions of this Act, of entering into contracts, of acquiring, holding and disposing of any kind of property for the purposes of its functions, of suing and being sued, of imposing administrative penalties and of doing all such things and entering into all such transactions as are incidental or conducive to the exercise or performance of its functions under this Act, including the lending or borrowing of money:

Provided that the Regulator shall not have the power to:

(a) borrow or lend any monies except with the authority and concurrence in writing of the Minister and Minister responsible for finance; or

(b) enter into any form of commercial partnership in furtherance of its functions or otherwise, unless authorized to do so in writing by the Minister; or

(c) delegate any of its functions in a manner other than that established by, or under this Act.

(2) The legal representation of the Regulator shall vest in the Regulator himself:

Provided that the Regulator may delegate any of his powers in writing to any one of his officers or employees to appear in the name and on behalf of the Regulator in any judicial proceedings and in any act, contract, instrument or other document whatsoever."

Substitution of article 13 of the principal Act.

5. Article 13 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following new article:

"Functions of the Regulator.

13. (1) The Regulator shall perform the duties and exercise the functions imposed and conferred upon him by this Act to:

(a) provide registration facilities for applicants which are eligible for registration in terms of this Act;

(b) accept or refuse applications from applicants to register as social enterprise organisations in terms of this Act;

(c) maintain and update the Register of Social Enterprise Organisations;

(d) monitor the activities of social enterprise organisations in order to ensure that they comply with their statute, with the provisions of this Act, any regulations and any guidelines made thereunder and to ensure that the social enterprise organisation implements the necessary policies, regulations and reporting structures to ensure accountability and transparency in their operations;

(e) monitor the behaviour of the administrators of social enterprise organisations to ensure the observance of high standards of accountability and transparency and compliance with the law;

(f) investigate any complaints relating to social enterprise organisations or organisations purporting to be social enterprise organisations and their activities, investigate ex officio any social enterprise organisation for any shortcomings and take such action as is in his power to redress any justified grievance that may come to his notice, including referring his findings to the Police;

(g) ensure that the social enterprise organisation achieves its purposes and protects its capital base while developing operational surpluses to ensure sustainability;

(h) co-ordinate and communicate with every Registrar and with any competent authority:

(i) to facilitate the registration processes for social enterprise organisations and to ensure the continuous monitoring and eligibility of social enterprise organisations in terms of this Act;

(ii) to establish procedures to ensure that the Regulator and each Registrar are aware of the status of a social enterprise organisation at all times and of any investigation or action which is being taken in respect of such social enterprise organisation;

(i) promote the social enterprise sector, developing co-operation between social enterprise organisations and the Government and co-operation between social enterprise organisations amongst themselves;

(j) make recommendations to the Minister on legislation, regulations and policies in support of social enterprise organisations and the social enterprise sector in general;

(k) assist Government, government departments, public agencies, authorities and entities controlled by the Government in preparing and reviewing policies in support of social enterprise organisations and the social enterprise sector in general;

(l) perform any other function or duty that is assigned to him under this Act and any regulations made thereunder as well as such other functions as may be assigned to him under any other law;

(m) impose administrative penalties for non-compliance with this Act:

Provided that the Regulator may apply a temporary derogation in relation to profit distribution, engagement of volunteers and the employment of disadvantaged workers according to the exigencies of the case.

(2) In the exercise of his functions, the Regulator shall act impartially and shall not be subject to the direction of any other person or authority.

(3) The Regulator may by writing under his hand, delegate to any person specific functions, powers or authorities assigned to, or conferred upon him by this Act or any other law, and may at any time revoke or vary such delegation:

Provided that no such delegation shall be deemed to divest the Regulator of any of his functions, powers or authorities and he may, if he thinks fit, exercise such functions, powers or authorities collaterally with the person so delegated.

Cap. 601.

(4) The provisions of article 77 of the Public Finance Management Act shall not apply to the Regulator or any other person carrying out his functions in terms of this Act."

6. Immediately after article 14 of the principal Act there shall be added the following new article:

Addition of new article to the principal Act.

"Data protection.

14A. (1) Any processing of personal data conducted by the Office of the Regulator in its capacity of a controller in terms of Article 4(7) of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679, shall fully comply with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the Data Protection Act, including the regulations made thereunder and the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subjects.

Cap. 586.

(2) The controller shall process personal data as necessary and required for the purpose of the performance of its functions and, or the exercise of any of its powers under this Act, including any regulations made thereunder.

(3) The processing of personal data, including special categories of personal data for reasons of substantial public interest, shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subjects.

(4) The controller, while taking into account the nature, scope, context and purposes of processing, as well as the risks of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of the data subjects, both at the time of the determination of the means for processing as well as at the time of the processing itself, shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures, in an effective manner and integrate the necessary safeguards into the processing in order to protect the rights of the data subjects and to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk.

(5) The access to personal data shall be reserved exclusively to duly designated officers of the controller on the basis of a role-based access control mechanism and subject to confidentiality and, or professional secrecy obligations, in order to prevent abuse, or unlawful access to, or disclosure of personal data.

(6) The data protection officer designated by the controller in accordance with Article 37(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 shall be duly consulted and in a timely manner on all matters in relation to the protection of personal data processed for the purpose of sub-article (2).

(7) For the purposes of ensuring and to be able to demonstrate that the processing of personal data is performed in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, the controller shall implement the appropriate data protection policies, which policies shall be periodically reviewed and updated where necessary."
