6. Article 17 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

Substitution of article 17 of the principal Act.

"Universal service.

17. (1) Users at all points in Malta shall enjoy the rights to a universal service involving the permanent provision of a postal service of a quality as may be prescribed by the Authority, at affordable prices for all users.

(2) The "universal service" in the context of the provision of postal services for the purposes of this Act means:

(a) that on every working day and not less than five days a week, save in circumstances deemed exceptional by the Authority, there is at least:

(i) one clearance, and

(ii) one delivery to the home or premises of every person in Malta or, as the Authority considers appropriate, under such conditions as it may determine from time to time, to appropriate installations; and

(b) that the following services are provided:

(i) the clearance, sorting, transport and distribution of postal articles up to two kilograms in weight;

(ii) the clearance, sorting, transport and distribution of postal parcels up to twenty kilograms in weight;

(iii) services for registered articles;

(iv) services for insured articles within Malta and to and from all countries which, as signatories to the Universal Postal Convention of the Universal Postal Union, declare their willingness to admit such items whether reciprocally or in one direction only;

(v) services, free of charge, for the blind or partially sighted persons as may be determined by the Authority; and

(vi) a basic counter service throughout Malta.

(3) The universal service as defined in this article covers both inland and cross-border services.

(4) For the purposes of the provision of a universal service, the minimum and maximum dimensions for postal articles shall be those laid in the relevant provisions adopted by the Universal Postal Union, as amended from time to time."

7. Immediately after article 17 of the principal Act, there shall be added the following new articles 17A and 17B:

"Designation of universal postal service providers.

17A. (1) The Authority may by notice in the Gazette designate one or more postal operators to provide different elements of the universal service and, or cover different parts of the national territory, and in so doing the Authority shall also determine the rights and obligations applicable to the postal operator concerned:

Provided that the Authority may, by notice in the Gazette, withdraw, amend or suspend any designation made under this subarticle, provided that prior to the effective date of any such withdrawal, amendment or suspension, the Authority may, where applicable, designate another postal operator in respect of the service affected by any such withdrawal, amendment or suspension.

(2) The Authority may ensure the provision of universal services by procuring such services in accordance with the applicable public procurement rules and regulations, by competitive dialogue or negotiated procedures with or without publication of a contract notice.

(3) A universal service provider shall meet the following requirements with respect to provision of the universal service:

(a) guarantee compliance with the essential requirements;

(b) ensure that an identical service is offered to users under comparable conditions;

(c) ensure that the service is made available without any form of discrimination whatsoever whether arising from political, religious, racial, gender or ideological considerations;

(d) ensure that the service is not interrupted or stopped except in cases of force majeure; and

(e) ensure that the service evolves in response to the technical, economic and social environment and to the needs of users.

Postal services within the scope of the universal service.

17B. (1) A postal service is within the scope of the universal service if:

(a) the service is within the description of the universal service, or

(b) the service would be within the description of the universal service but for the fact that -

(i) in the case of a service consisting of the clearance and delivery of postal articles, the clearance or delivery is not made on every working day as required in article 17(2)(a), or

(ii) the service is not provided throughout Malta, or

(iii) the service is not provided at an affordable price in accordance with a uniform tariff applicable throughout Malta pursuant to article 21, or

(c) the Authority determines that the postal service is of a kind that, having regard to postal service users, could reasonably be said to be interchangeable with a service of a description set out in article 17.

(2) In this article any reference to a service includes a part of that service."
