ACT No. IX of 2013

An Act to amend the Social Security Act (Cap. 318).

BE IT ENACTED by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the House of Representatives, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:-

1. The short title of this Act is the Social Security (Amendment) Act, 2013, and this Act shall be read and construed as one with the Social Security Act hereinafter referred to as the "principal Act".

Short title.

Cap. 318.

2. In article 2 of the principal Act, the definition "Service Pension" shall be amended as follows:

Amendment of article 2 of the principal Act.

(a) paragraph (ix) thereof shall be renumbered as paragraph (x); and

(b) immediately after paragraph (viii) thereof, there shall be added the following new paragraph:

"(ix) with effect from the 5th January 2013, for the purpose of calculating the rate of a pension under this Act, a service pension net of another two hundred euro (€200); and".

A 230

Amendment of article 5 of the principal Act.

3. Article 5 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) for the words "insurable employment." there shall be substituted the words "insurable employment:" and

(b) immediately thereafter, there shall be added the following new proviso:

"Provided that, with effect from the 5th January 2013, the provisions of this paragraph shall also not apply where the disabled person entered into marriage on or before the 6th of January 2007."

Amendment of article 16 of the principal Act.

4. Article 16 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) paragraph (c) of sub-article (2) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

(c) any citizen of Malta who goes abroad as a volunteer worker on projects in the areas of human welfare and development and environmental protection which are recognized as such by the Minister in advance, for any period during which he is performing such volunteer work and has not yet reached pension age; so however that, for this purpose, any such number of credited contributions shall in no case exceed an aggregate of 260 in any period of 10 years in such volunteer work, provided that:

(i) where any such volunteer work as aforesaid in this paragraph was performed between the 5th January, 1981 and the 6th January, 1991 the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall also apply if the Minister is satisfied that the projects on which such volunteer work was performed were restricted to the areas aforesaid in this paragraph; so however that any credited contributions that have to be awarded in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall cover consecutive periods starting from the 6th January, 1991 backwards;

(ii) where any such volunteer work is carried out in Malta or abroad, by young persons who have not yet reached 25 years of age, the maximum number of weeks in credited contributions shall be awarded for a maximum period of 260 weeks in so far as the young person returned in insurable employment or self-occupation for a period of not less than five years.";

(b) paragraph (d) of sub-article (2) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

"(d) the father or the mother, who have attained the age of eighteen years and born on or after the 1st January 1952, has the legal care and custody of a child who has not attained the age of six years, or the age of ten years in the case of a child who has been certified by a medical consultant as suffering, during the period for which the credit is being requested, from a serious disability:

Provided that the sum total of such credited contributions which may be given with regard of each child to a parent or to both parents together shall not exceed 52 contributions in any period of one year where the parent was born between 1st January 1952 and 31st December 1961, and shall not exceed 104 contributions in any period of two years where the parent was born on or after 1st January 1962:

Provided further that in the case of a parent who, to the satisfaction of the Director, presents a certificate from a medical consultant of a child suffering from a serious disability during such period for which credits are requested, the sum total of such credited contributions that may be awarded in respect of each and every such child shall not exceed 104 contributions in any period of two years where the parent was born between 1st January 1952 and 31st December 1961, and shall not exceed 208 contributions in any period of four years where the parent was born on or after 1st January 1962:

Provided also that such credits shall only be awarded insofar as, prior to the pension age, such father or mother, as the case may be, resumes gainful occupation for a minimum period equivalent to that period for which such number of credits would have been awarded; so however that, in the event of the death of any such parent, such credits shall still be awarded notwithstanding that minimum period."; and

(c) paragraph (a) of sub-article (3) thereof shall be substituted by the following:

"(a) for any calendar week for each day of which in terms of articles 18, 28 and 30 he is entitled to Sickness Benefit, or Injury Benefit, or Unemployment Benefit, or Special Unemployment Benefit, or for any calendar week during which he is entitled to Invalidity Pension, Increased Invalidity Pension or, prior to reaching pension age, a National Minimum Pension under article 26, or for any calendar week during which he is entitled to a Carer's Pension under article 68 and at any time prior to his becoming entitled to a Carer's Pension as aforesaid in this paragraph was employed in insurable employment or was self-occupied and immediately prior to his becoming entitled to such Carer's Pension had -

(i) paid a total of 156 contributions; and

(ii) paid or been credited with an average of at least 20 contributions per annum; since attaining his 18th birthday:

So however that, with effect from the 5th January 2013, the provisions of this sub-article shall also apply to persons who are not entitled to a Carers' Pension who fail to satisfy the conditions of Part IV of the Second Schedule of this Act but fulfil the criteria stipulated by the provisions of article 106(a), and to persons who are entitled to Social Assistance under article 30(8);".

Amendment of article 40 of the principal Act.

5. Article 40 of the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

(a) in sub-article (1) thereof, for the words "sub-article (2)", there shall be substituted the words "sub-article (3)";

(b) sub-article (2) thereof shall be renumbered as sub-article (3); and

(c) immediately after sub-article (1) thereof, there shall be added the following new sub-article:

"(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-article (1), with effect from the 5th January 2013, a widow who remarried before 6th January 2007 and lost her right to a widows' pension, will be entitled to a widows' pension at a weekly rate equivalent to the rate of Widows Pension specified in the Twelfth Schedule, or, in the case where the rate is assessed under article 42A, such rate as is apportioned under such article, as was applicable in her case until the date of her remarriage in terms of articles 31 or 33."

6. Article 61A of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

Substitution of article 61A of the principal Act.

"61A. The pensionable income of a person born before the 1st January, 1962 who becomes entitled to a pension in respect of retirement or invalidity in accordance with this Act and who had accepted to partake of an early retirement scheme after 1st January 2008 in anticipation of the privatization or as a part of the process of restructuring of an entity in which the Government, at the time when such person accepted to take up early retirement, was the owner or the majority shareholder, shall be that specified in the Thirteenth Schedule, or the pensionable income which would have otherwise resulted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, had that person's last day of employment following the acceptance of the early retirement arrangement been the date of retirement or invalidity, whichever pensionable income is the higher."

7. Sub-article (4) of article 93 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following:

Amendment of article 93 of the principal Act.

"(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, where a resident of a State Financed Residential Service that is a state-owned hostel for the care and welfare of persons with disability referred to in article 131A is a married person whose spouse is not such a resident, and is not in receipt of a benefit, pension, bonus, assistance or allowance payable under this Act in the spouse's own right, 60% of the rate of benefit, pension, bonus, assistance or allowance which would have otherwise been payable to such resident shall be payable to the spouse who is not a resident:

Provided that, with effect from the 5th January 2013, 70% of the rate of benefit, pension, bonus, assistance or allowance which would have otherwise been payable to such resident. or the rate of Age Pension for a single person in accordance with the Sixth Schedule, shall be payable to the spouse who is not a resident, whichever is the most beneficial."

8. In paragraph 4 of Part V of the Second Schedule to the principal Act, for the words "where the marriage was entered into after the 6th January 2007." there shall be substituted the words "where the marriage was entered into after the 6th January 2007:", and immediately thereafter there shall be added the following new sub-paragraph:

Amendment of the Second Schedule to the principal Act.

A 234

"So however that, with effect from the 5th January, 2013, the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply where the marriage was entered into before the 6th January 2007."
