ANGLU FARRUGIA, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, INTERVENES DURING A CPA DEBATE

This morning, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Dr Anglu Farrugia, has intervened in the “Debate: Can you legislate for a Moral issue”, that brought to a conclusion the Conference on “Human Rights in the Modern Day Commonwealth – Magna Carta to Commonwealth Charter”, which was organised by the UK Commonwealth Parliamentary Association.

The Debate, in which Commonwealth Parliamentarians took part, was held in Committee Room 10, Palace of Westminster, and was chaired by The Baroness D’Souza CMG, Speaker of the House of Lords.

Speaker Anglu Farrugia was accompanied by Anthony Agius Decelis and Toni Bezzina.
