SPEAKER RECEIVES THE HIGH COMMISSIONER OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA

The Speaker of the House of Representatives Anġlu Farrugia this morning received a courtesy visit by Mr Kenneth Enos Kofi Tachie, High Commissioner of the Republic of Ghana.

The Speaker and the High Commissioner noted that the excellent bilateral relations that exist between Malta and Ghana and which were established in 1974, have lately become more intense, focused on enhancing co-operation in maritime issues, migration, education and tourism.

They discussed issues of mutual interest, particularly the forthcoming Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting to be held in Malta in November of this year and the role of both Malta and Ghana in ensuring a successful outcome of CHOGM 2015.

Mr Emmanuel Enos, Head of Chancery, was also present for the meeting.
