PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY THE OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Parliament of Malta, writes to the Presidents of the French National Assembly and the French Senate

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Parliament of Malta, Anglu Farrugia, has personally written to Claude Bartolone, President of the French National Assembly, and to Gérard Larcher, President of the French Senate, to convey his deepest sorrow following last Friday's terror attack in Paris, which resulted in the killing of more than 130 people and the wounding of over 300 others.

On behalf of the Members of the House of Representatives, Mr Speaker expressed his sincerest condolences to the Presidents and Honourable Members of the French National Assembly and the French Senate, as well as to the members of the family of the deceased. He also expressed solidarity with the wounded and wished them a speedy recovery.
